While Melissa and Melanie both had to spend a couple of nights away from home last week due to the high water, another member of the family was also evacuated and was lucky to make his way back home. Elmo, a sixteen-year-old Cockapoo, had to be moved out in the country for boarding due to the threat of high water and somehow managed to escape from his pen. When Kathy and I went out to get him Saturday afternoon we discovered the pen empty, and honestly doubted if we would find the shaggy dog, since he is deaf and couldn't hear our yells. Kathy went off on foot down the road hoping to see the dog, and after a few minutes heard his yelps coming from deep in a field. She found him stuck in the muddy field, but couldn't get to him because of the boggy ground, and yelled for more help. I too was unable to wade through the flooded field from a spot across from Kathy, but Danny Sanders, a neighbor, made it through the water and mud and literally dug the dog out of the mud. The dog was scared, muddy and tired when we got to him, but after a quick hosing ment was set to begin on Friday down and a trip back to town, he was soon content and safe back in his pen in downtown Elba. He still looks kind of shaggy; however, he looks mighty good to Kathy and the girls, and I guess the fact he got stuck saved his life, since he would have probably wondered deeper and deeper in the woods trying to find his way home. We folks in Elba aren't very on Monday, July 11 fond of "flood mud," but this time the mud actually saved the day!

RAIN PLAYS HAVOC WITH ALL-STAR TOURNAMENTS

It always rains around All-Star time, but this year the rains have come almost daily, and in buckets, and have played absolute havoc with the various All-Star teams. The Babe Ruth 13-Year-Old Stars got their tourney played on time, but the 13-15 Stars saw the rains force several days of postponements and completely wipe out many practice sessions. The Dixie Minor Tournament was moved out of town due to the flooding in Elba, and the All-Stars headed off Monday night after not being able to practice but once over an eight-day span. The Dixie Youth All-Stars opened their ner's bracket set for Wednesday, tournament on time, but also had several practices rained out, and wasn't July 13, at 8:00. near ready to take the field for competition

The heavy rains caused a lot of problems for a lot of people, including round would put the All-Stars in the the youngsters on the All-Star teams.

The Alabama High School Athletic Association fined Etowah High 6:00 and 8:00, with one game set for School $1,000 and placed the school on one year probation for the actions Friday and Saturday, both set to start of Coach Larry Foster and his assistants during the prep baseball playoffs. Coach Foster came back on the field after being ejected and used "abusive, profane language" toward the umpires and shoved an ump before being restrained. Assistant coach Jeff Colegrove came on the field with Fos- Ryan Kinsaul, Job Bowers, Adam ter during the altercation, while assistant coach Charlie Rowan was later Fredericks, Randy Danford, Randall ejected in the third inning. Elba's open date is Oct.14, and shares the same open date as Clayton, R.C. Hatch, W.S. Neal, Tallassee, Greenville and Daphne. Kinston has an opening on Nov.4; however, the Bulldogs could play if they really wanted to, especially since Fruitdale, Lyman Ward and Elmore County all share the same date. Enterprise has an open date on Sept.2, but isn't as lucky, since the only teams sharing the open date are three 1A schools, two 2A schools and one 3A school. Congress is moving to confirm another of President Clinton's nominees to the U. S. Supreme Court. We know very little about Judge Stephen Breyer but during congressional hearings he gained a supporter from this corner. We don't remember the question but his answer was, "Judges should not legislate." We have quarreled for years with the habit of appeal court judges to make law. Of course when lawmakers make a simple "thou shall not" law and take 250 pages to do it, there will be room for any judge, lawyer or fourth grade student to find something to challenge it on and ultimately

City council members have mentioned getting complaints about misuse of handicapped parking spaces in Elba. We don't know who they have been talking to, but it is true ... able bodied folks think nothing of driving up and parking in a clearly marked handicapped parking space. This might be a good time for the police to start writing a few tickets for this illegal action. We don't know of any better way of curing some of this callous, thoughtless practice. The fine and court costs can easily be over $100 and that should get anyone's attention. The Mularz bunch went to the beach last Saturday and even though it took a couple of days to get all the sand out of the car, everyone had a good time and no one got sunburned. Melissa and Melanie had a lot of fundigging for seashells, and even Mom and Dad got wet and sandy trying to help the girls enjoy their first trip to the beach this summer. The excursion only lasted about two hours; however, it was fun for all and a great family

ALL-STAR TOURNAMENTS COME TO END FOR ELBA

The last of the Elba All-Star teams were eliminated last week from tournament play and the summer of '94 certainly won't go down in the history

The Dixie Youth All-Stars looked terrific in their opening round 11-3 romp over the Enterprise Americans, and just about everyone at the tourney felt like Elba and Geneva would meet in the finals. Well, Elba and Geneva did meet, but it was in the second round and Elba absorbed a tough 7-3 loss, and the very next night the local All-Stars were ousted when they were surprised by the Enterprise Nationals 8-1. The Dixie Youth All-Stars had a lot of talent and looked great at times, but didn't make enough plays and didn't score enough runs to win at the tourney, and had to settle for a fourth place tie. The players gave it all they had and the coaches did likewise, it just wasn't their week.

The Dixie Minor All-Stars saw the tournament moved out of Elba by the flood and then had the tournament rained out for a couple of nights before they claimed one win before being eliminated. The youngsters were all fired up after a week of practice and looked forward to playing on their own field, but the flood disrupted the lives of the players and made practice almost impossible, and from there the fun quickly vanished for all involved. It was a shame that the season had to end on such a sour note for the players, coaches and fans; however, the All-Stars showed they belonged by winning a game and should have won another. They deserve a

THRASHER IS SURPRISE CHOICE AT NEW BROCKTON

The naming of Keith Thrasher as the new head basketball coach at New Brockton High School came as quickly as the wildfires out west. One day it was reported that there was no clear choice for the job, then one day later it was reported that Thrasher and his wife were getting the guided tour of the New Brockton schools and that he had been offered the position. The next day the board met and all of the sudden the vacancy was filled with one of the winningest coaches around.

Thrasher won 51 games in just two seasons at Samson and it was believed that he would be at the school for as long as he wanted, but before school got out the funding crunch was felt down at Samson and Thrasher's contract was not renewed, although everyone knew he would be rehired. When Dick Chastain resigned as the head football coach at Samson, the rumor was that Thrasher would coach both and everything was in the works. The next thing everyone knows is Thrasher is at New Brockton and it is a done deal. I guess the story didn't really last long enough to make a good TV show, but it might make a pretty good mini-series!

It is good to see Coach Lane get such a good job and I hope he is successful on and off the court.

IN CLOSING ...

It's hard to believe, but the first day of fall football practice is less than three weeks away and that means it is also time for the area fans to start bragging about how good their hometown teams are going to be. I was down in Foley over the weekend to watch a baseball tournament and at least four of five folks wanted to know about how good Elba would be in football this season. I kind of poor-mouthed a little, but did return the question to them and had fun with their answers. Hey, football fever is already making the rounds and could reach epidemic proportions before
